Box Trunk Shows rules

- You are responsible to pay for shipping when returning the products to us. _____ (Initial)
- Once you receive your trunk show, you must inventory all bags sent. You have until the first day of your show to let us know of any discrepancies or items that were broken during shipment. Discrepancies may be reported via phone call or email (listed above). _____ (Initial)
- You must sell all items at the prices they are marked. Do not price items at any prices different than what was received and is listed on the inventory sheet. Please let us know if you have any questions regarding prices or any missing price tags. _____ (Initial)
- Tags are not to be removed!! Many hours of labor go into sorting and pricing strands. All items over $5 will arrive priced. _____ (Initial)
- Upon the conclusion of your show, inventory the remaining products. The gross sales are split 50/50. You may use the inventory spreadsheet included in shipment or the emailed copy to figure out the total and send a check with the returned boxes. You may also choose to have a credit card charged once the boxes have been received and a final inventory is done to confirm totals. _____ (Initial)
- Make sure, when mailing items back, that everything is packaged very well so that nothing is broken. Please do not reuse boxes or bubble wrap. They are not suitable for reshipment and are the main cause of broken beads. You are responsible for payment on broken strands that were not reported before the start of your show. _____ (Initial)
- If a time extension is necessary, extensions must be approved by Cherry Tree Beads. Please call to make any related arrangements. _____ (Initial)
